Fee: $79

DEPARTS: 10:00 AM ..... RETURNS: 6:30 PM

Enjoy a day at The Huntington Library, Art Collections, and Botanical Gardens at a spectacular time of year — when the gardens are generally in full bloom. The Huntington's botanical gardens feature over 15,000 kinds of plants from around the world, many landscaped into a series of themed gardens including the Rose Garden, Japanese Garden and Chinese Garden. The Huntington's art collection is one of the most comprehensive collections in the U.S. of British and French art of the 18th and 19th centuries and includes Gainsborough's "The Blue Boy" and Mary Cassatt's "Breakfast in Bed." While much of the collection is on display in the original Huntington residence, a beautiful new addition to the galleries is the Fielding Wing — a $10.3 million building that made its debut in 2016. The Huntington Library displays a magnificent collection of rare books and manuscripts including a Gutenberg

Bible, an illuminated manuscript of Chaucer's The Canterbury Tales, and a First Folio edition of Shakespeare. Enjoy approximately five hours at your leisure to explore the gardens, art galleries and the wonderful new gift shop and visitor center. Enjoy lunch on your own at the various eateries located at The Huntington. Suggested: walking shoes. Price includes tour director and driver gratuities. Departs from La Bonita Park parking lot.

THE BEACH HOUSE & BUTTERFLIES MARION DAVIES BEACH GUEST HOUSE & BUTTERFLY PAVILION

#9077.300

Thursday, August 29, 2019

Fee: $79

We begin our whimsical day in Santa Monica with a docent-guided tour of the Marion Davies Beach Guest House — the last remaining original structure from the property that was developed in the 1920s by William Randolph Hearst for his girlfriend, actress Marion Davies (the structure that was her actual home was destroyed in the 1994 Northridge earthquake). The Guest House was a hot spot when Hearst and Davies entertained Hollywood's biggest stars on the property. The original tile and beautiful moldings, along with the estate's original swimming pool, give a glimpse into the home's glamorous past. After time at leisure for lunch on your own in downtown Santa Monica at Santa Monica Place or Third Street Promenade, we'll venture to Exposition Park and "flutter" over to the Butterfly Pavilion, a favorite seasonal exhibit at the Natural History Museum. Located on the outside of the Museum, the newly refurbished exhibit space features more flight space, more resting spots, and more natural light for the free-flying butterflies inside. As you explore this space at your own pace, more than 30 butterfly species native to North America and moths will be up-close and personal. Enjoy time at leisure to browse the museum's permanent exhibits, including the renowned Dinosaur Hall — one of the most extraordinary exhibits of its kind in the world. Suggested: walking shoes as there is considerable walking and stairs on this tour. Fee: $79

DEPARTS: 8:15 AM..... RETURNS: 6:00 PM
Take a walk on the wild side at the inspiring and engaging Forever Wild Exotic Animal Sanctuary. After co-founders Joel and Chemaine realized that thousands of exotic animals were being put to sleep after being abandoned, abused or illegally obtained, they wanted to make a difference and provide them with a home and a chance to live a healthy life. Forever Wild was born out of the hope to provide the animals with resources to rehabilitate while also providing education to the Southern California population on what we can do to protect these animals’ lands and lives from becoming extinct. On this educational, guided tour, you’ll see a wide range of wildlife including reptiles, birds, monkeys, lions, tigers, alligators, a bear and a black panther — with the added bonus of watching a feeding demonstration. Enjoy lunch on your own at the new Cracker Barrel Old Country Store that recently opened. This highway-iconic chain’s Victorville location is the only California location. An included sweet treat awaits at an authentic old-fashioned ice cream parlor before we head home! Price includes tour director and driver gratuities. Departs from La Bonita Park parking lot.
